

Jesus And The Children Calvary Curriculum

A practical guidebook that helps readers align with God's desire to cross cultures and reach all nations. Many Christians experience a stirring in their souls after short mission trips or global conferences, or as they interact with the increasingly diverse sets of people moving into their neighborhoods, workplaces, and schools. But most don't know how to build intentional relationships with people from different backgrounds. Across the Street and Around the World offers an answer to those Christians wondering, Is it possible to engage with people of other cultures right now, in my everyday world—or even beyond? Step by step, it helps them see how to prepare their souls, reshape their worldviews, and redesign their patterns of life to become the sort of people who can represent Jesus across cultural lines and take part in God's plans for their neighborhoods, their cities, and the world.

Basking in the Son-Shine features poetry describing the life-changing transformation in a life that is committed to Jesus Christ and in a heart that is His forever.

Introduces early readers to objects found in space, including the sun, moon, solar system, and Milky Way.

"A beautifully illustrated, simple, yet complete guide to help parents teach their children the gospel of Jesus Christ."--Cover.

When someone becomes a new Christian, they are often left wondering what to do next. What does it mean to be a Christian? Where do they start? Bob Franquiz, founding pastor of Calvary Fellowship in Miami has built a road map for new Christians in Begin. He leads young believers to the starting points--Bible reading, prayer, church, fellowship, and baptism--that lead to a rich life of following Christ. New Christians will discover the practices that encourage spiritual growth and develop a process that allows them to keep growing closer to God for a lifetime.

Revelation 1:5 New International Version (NIV) 5 and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood. Victoria hope: Daily Devotional with colorful pictures and journal pages will encourage people to Honor and focus on the blood of Jesus. She hopes souls will be saved and become an inheritance to farther generations. She plans to leave all her bibles, scriptures, journals and this book to her children's children, and so forth. She prays you will do the same. Proverbs 13:22 King James Version (KJV) 22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

Raising Praise for All Our Days: New Lyrics for Familiar and Beloved American Tunes draws from the deep reservoir of classic and beloved tunes known to generations of Americans and pairs them with lyrics that proclaim the love of God and the joy that comes from living with that love. Carol Carlson, the lyricist, has tapped into the insights she has gained from homeschooling her children.

Working with them has shown her how powerfully singing aids memory. That realization sparked her desire to help others learn about and live with the love of God. The presentation of each song in Raising Praise for All Our Days suggests the tune to which the new lyrics fit. So, for instance, O, Give Me a Heart pairs with the classic tune for Home on the Range. The verse lifts up a life that brings God glory: O, give me a heart, yes, a big happy heart / That cares for Your children each day. / Make me happy to be Your hands and Your feet / So glory to You can be raised. Raising Praise for All Our Days: New Lyrics for Familiar and Beloved American Tunes promises to breathe new life into old tunes while bringing those time-tested and beloved melodies to the joyous task of giving voice to praises that celebrate God's love for His children.

Edward M. Bounds takes us on a journey deep into the heart of active, powerful, life-giving prayer. He invites us to pray in such a way that involves and touches our entire being: mind, soul and body. We have all heard stories of great men and women whom God used to change the world as they wrestled with Him on their knees. This book uncovers the secrets to their devotion and gives practical ideas and advice for entering into a more intimate and powerful life with God through prayer.

Brother Francis walks children in the footsteps of Jesus as He makes His way to the cross, where He gives His life for the salvation of all people. Beautifully illustrated in full color and containing meditations and prayers that are easy for children to understand for each individual Station of the Cross, this book is a wonderful way to experience this important traditional devotion.

Mommy and her little ones are settling in for story time, and this time it's the biblical story of Easter that she's telling. As the youngsters hear God's tale unfold with its sometimes somber notes about sin and death, they are softly and continually reminded, "But Easter is coming!" By the end of the book, the anticipation has built and the children can celebrate the ending and the glory of Easter Sunday. In a time when children's Easter excitement often focuses on only egg hunts and candy, this book offers a different—and true—reason for joy and expectancy. It's designed to be read and reread on the days leading up to Easter, telling the greatest story and building a sense of anticipation and celebration in little hearts. Go to bhkids.com to find this book's Parent Connection, an easy tool to help moms and dads (or anyone else who loves kids) discuss the book's message with their child. We're all about connecting parents and kids to each other and to God's Word.

Devotions on various subjects include a meditation, brief Bible reading, questions for discussion, and suggestions for projects.

'We did not know; nobody has ever told us that!' These were the words, spoken in tears, of Pope Pius XII on first reading passages from A Doctor at Calvary, Dr. Pierre Barbet's scientific and reverent study of the Crucifixion of Christ. From an examination of the Holy Shroud of Turin—the authenticity of which Dr. Barbet accepts from medical evidence—a remarkable reconstruction of Christ's terrible agony is presented in language that cannot fail to move the heart. What kind and what degree of physical torture did Our Lord suffer on Calvary? What was the medical cause of His death? These are among the questions answered in A Doctor at Calvary, one of the most significant contributions to Christological science in modern times. Christ's preliminary sufferings—the agony in the Garden of Gethsemane, the scourging, the carrying of the cross—the wounds of the hands, in the feet, in the heart, the causes of the rapid death, and the entombment are recounted with the devotion and compassion of an ardent Christian and with a brilliant doctor's accuracy of anatomical detail. 'Without doubt this is one of the most gripping and moving books to have been published in many a year.'—Harold C. Gardiner, S. J. 'As an aid to vivid viewing of the Passion, this book is peerless.'—Rev. John S. Kennedy, Balancing the Books '...a profoundly moving study of the Passion.'—Commonwealth '...a remarkable reconstruction of Christ's agony and death.'—Jubilee 'This volume is an outstanding example of how science can contribute not only to theology, but to solid Christian piety, and thus be an aid to love of Christ.'—The Voice 'This is a gripping and powerful book of the highest stature.'—Voice of St. Jude 'Sincere study of this book will enable us for the first time to understand what is behind the words: 'Jesus suffered and died for us.'—America

Amy Carmichael questions whether we allow our doubts and disappointments to hinder our faith, or do we really know Calvary's love? In a series of statements and common situations, a Christ-love of forgiveness and strength is meant to mend our hearts and encourage others, because of what He has already done.

Now you can make Bible learning for children more fun ... by including snacks and activities that relate to Bible lessons.

Communion is one of the end-time mysteries of God—designed for believers to gain mastery over the affairs of life. It offers a complete and comprehensive package for believers' life insurance in God. It is one of the most sacred ordinances in the Bible, yet often misunderstood by many. In Communion: Our Personal Calvary, author Finbar Desir explains that the Lord's Supper enables every Christian to participate personally in Jesus's sacrifice on Calvary. It presents, in simple terms, a deeper understanding of Communion, gained from in-depth study of the Scriptures and revelation from the Holy Spirit. Desir examines Jesus's words and actions regarding Communion, the New Covenant, Jesus's suffering and death, and the linkages between Communion, Passover, and the Day of Atonement. Though Christians know that Jesus died for our sins, most are unaware of the many other benefits He purchased for us through His suffering. These include healing, restitution for harm we cause to others, elimination of curses, and more. We can access all of these through Communion, which Jesus described as food for our spiritual development, and which is the perfect approach to the Father.

* * * Metusela F. Albert says, "When you know the truth, you will easily know the error(s). But if you don't know the truth, you will not know the error(s)." * * * This book is going to blow your mind with exclusive truth that has been hidden for decades because it was not understood by the mainline Christian (Protestant) Churches and denominations. Read it for yourself and stop being deceived by your own church. You are going to learn something that you had not known before about JESUS in the Old and New Testaments; and his two natures during his incarnation on earth. Did you not know yet that the Almighty God of Abraham did not have a Son in heaven called Jesus? . . . Did you? . . . Really? Of course! JESUS was the Almighty God of Abraham before his incarnation through Mary at Bethlehem. HE alone created the heaven and the earth. There is no other God besides him. None before him and after him. Worship is due to JESUS alone. He was the Father who became the Son of God through Mary at Bethlehem by the incarnation process. While JEHOVAH was in human flesh called Jesus, he did not cease from being God the Father. As an immortal God from eternity, Jesus Christ's divinity cannot die. Therefore, only his humanity died at Calvary. * * * I am the author of these three Books: Book # 1. 15 Reasons Why Babies Aren't Born Sinners. Book # 2. JESUS was the Almighty God of Abraham. HE alone created heaven and earth. Book # 3. JESUS wrote the Ten Commandments. He abolished none at Calvary. * * *

Public worship is the nursery of the Holy Spirit. As you enter the sanctuary, you notice them at once. Then, as you take your seat next to a family, they are right there beside you. Throughout the ensuing service, you see them--and hear them. The presence of children in public worship is not only striking, but also increasingly strange in modern American church life. In fact, the idea of your children sitting or standing next to you during prayer, singing, or the pastor's sermon can be downright scary. This book is based in the conviction that public worship is the nursery of the Holy Spirit and that bringing children in is both beneficial and a blessing. The Nursery of the Holy Spirit offers practical advice on how to make this ideal a reality in your children's lives.

Praying the Stations booklets are tailored to a specific audience and can be used year after year. These booklets are appropriate for group and/or individual use.

Life is hard, and tragedy can strike anyone. How can we survive when our lives fall apart? In this inspirational devotional, Darlene Busse takes readers on a ninety-day journey of discovery with Jesus, who will walk with us through every storm of life. He will: Save us from drowning in our tears. Cut off the baggage of our past. Take us to the other side of our pain. Re-mould us to be valued children of God. Neither the cross nor the grave could hold Jesus. As He ascended back to His Father, He promised that He would return. Until then, we have the Holy Spirit living in us to help us on our journey. A devotional of joy in the darkest hours, From the Cross to the Mountain will touch hearts and inspire hope! "... you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to countless thousands of angels in joyful gathering" (Hebrew 12:22, NLT).

A beautiful introduction to the Stations of the Cross, this book that will help children understand what really happened on Calvary and just how much Jesus loves them. Gorgeous illustrations are accompanied by a simple but moving narration of the events of Jesus' passion and death. Each station ends with a heartfelt prayer. Walking with Jesus to Calvary is a thoughtful gift for Lent, Easter, or any time of the year. For ages five to eleven. Prayer intentions for family, friends, and others are suggested for each station. Includes prayers traditionally used for the Stations.

This is such a time as this assignment laid upon my heart from God inspired by the Holy Spirit. It is written in Psalms 127:3, "Lo, children are a heritage of the Lord: the fruit of the womb is his reward." Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me and do not forbid them; for such is the kingdom of heaven," as it is written in Matthew 19:14.

When the Holy Spirit gave me the commission to teach the children to preach the word of God, this scripture screamed to my soul. Let the children hear the truth and bear witness of the of the truth concerning the issues of life through of the living word of God. My son Jordan would bring other people's children to me to pray for them and witness to them, to fix their issues through the word. The Holy Spirit spoke again to teach the children to preach the word of God. We are not always around our children when they are at school, out playing with friends, or on the Internet, etc. As our children are led astray into drugs, perverseness, bullying, etc., it's time for our children to lead each other into righteousness through the word of God. This is where my book, being the inspired by the Holy Spirit, comes in: Jesus, It's Me, Jordan. I Have a Problem; Jordan, I Have an Answer. Love to love.

Adapted from Journey of Decision, a Way of the Cross for adults, this children's Way engages children by having them actively participate. Fourteen readers represent characters from the passion of Jesus. Suggestions are given at the outset for props or symbolic costumes that achieve a two-fold purpose: they draw children into the story, thus helping them follow along. As in the original Journey on which this children's adaptation is based, the text combines the traditional with the innovative. It asks children to journey with Jesus not just during this Way of the Cross but during every day of their lives.

Millions of church kids are growing up and deciding to leave the church. They listened attentively in Sunday school, made friends, and seemed committed. But one day, they quit. What happened? The Bible says we love God because he first loved us. So if we are not primarily teaching our kids about God's love for us in Christ, we may miss our opportunity to capture their hearts. But what does it look like to teach a gospel-centered lesson? Show Them Jesus is an instruction manual for teachers of kids and teens written by a lay Bible teacher with 30 years' experience. With a simple framework and lots of real-life examples, Klumpenhower's book helps teachers to identify and communicate the heart of the gospel to each child in each lesson. Conventional wisdom says, "Make class more fun!" Or just, "Make it easier!" But Show Them Jesus challenges the culture of low-stakes, low-expectations teaching and invites teachers to do nothing less than teach and treasure the good news of Jesus in every lesson. Show Them Jesus's how-to approach will complement and enrich existing lessons or teaching materials and is appropriate for teachers of children and teens in any setting. THANK YOU FOR CALVARY! glorifies our LORD and SAVIOR Jesus Christ, God Almighty [Revelation 1:8], the only true God [I John 5:20] and praises HIM for Who He Is, for His majesty, His creation and His amazing love for us because He loves us so much that He took on Flesh to become Man to save us and redeem the world from the curse [Genesis 3:1-24]; [John 1:1-5]. God exists, He is Our CREATOR and the CREATOR of the universe. God created us in His image [Genesis 1:27]. God put Adam in the Garden of Eden and He gave Adam His commands: The LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it. 16 And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; 17 but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat from it you will certainly die." [Genesis 2:15-17]. But Adam disobeyed God and listened to Eve who was deceived by Satan [Genesis 3:1-24]. Adam and Eve disobeyed God and committed the original Sin, and brought the curse to the world [Genesis 2:17]. God punished them. God became Man to save us [John 1:1-5]. God exists, He is our CREATOR and the CREATOR of the Universe, He is our LORD and SAVIOR Jesus Christ as it is written in the Holy Bible: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was with God in the beginning. 3 Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. 4 In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it [John 1:1-5]. There is only one God, our LORD and Savior Jesus Christ, God Almighty [Revelation 1:8], the Only True God [1 John 5:20].

“For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men” (Titus 2:11)
“And be not conformed to this world but: be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind” (Romans 12:2a) The focus of this book is to challenge you to come back to the cross. It will remind you of the promises of grace and its transforming power to all who seek it. It is not based on your performance it is unmerited. His love is unconditional. However, ‘Change in an individual is not automatic. Though it is not by works it will require faith. It is important to seek to understand, and acknowledge the supernatural finished work of Calvary, in order to enjoy the benefits. To have a transformed mind is to be restful in him, no matter what the circumstance in life. There is no magical formula in regards to the fulfillment of his will in your life. It is his will for you to enjoy all of his blessings. Yet, there is a definite expectancy of the Lord, even as your expectation of him. We have the option to choose, desire and obey the word of the Lord. We do because we love him. We can walk and live victoriously, only by the power of His Holy Spirit. He has quickened us and made us alive in Him. It is the sufficiency of his grace that keeps us. This book may be used as an inspirational tool for discussions. It may also be used in Women’s groups or for Bible study. It will guide you back to the central truths of the bible. Its teaching may be useful in helping you live a Spirit-led-life when it’s coupled with daily prayers and meditation. You may even notice an increase in your growth, and be able to help others. It also includes examples from the Old, and New Testament. It contains Questions and Answers to induce thoughts that will prepare you to shape the lives of others through the gospel; influence, communities, cities and even nations for the glory of God. Evangelist Regina Thomas is the author of the books: Walking By Faith Swaddled In His Glory, Caminando Por Fe Fajado En Su Gloria, and If I Never see Another Sunshine I will Still Love God. She is an ordained minister. The founder of Panama Mission Campaign, an outreach ministry of Restorative Hope Ministry Inc. She is the wife of James H. Thomas. Married for 39 years. She is a mother of four children, and five grandchildren.
"It was a wooden box, simply made. 'I guess you could call it my war chest,' Grandpa said. As the children peered into the box, they saw many small figures- animals, people, and objects of all kinds. A number of them were carved from wood."

Come and join Anna on her whimsical adventure into discovering what the true meaning of Christmas really is. This story allows your children to use their imagination without diminishing the true meaning of why we celebrate one of the greatest days in human history—when Jesus was born. This story will take your child to the scenes of the Bible and show them why Jesus came to this earth and also how they themselves can invite Jesus to live in them.

Over the last several decades, we have seen a breakdown in God's design of marriage and the family. The traditional family, one man married to one woman rearing their own children, has been the basic building block of society since the creation of man. But today, marriage and family have been redefined. An attack is taking place on the traditional family as taught by God in His Word. In The Family Blueprint, David Rosales examines God's design for marriage, the roles of both the husband and wife, and how parents can raise their children for Jesus. David takes us back to Scripture, laying the foundation for a home that is centered on God and His commands for our lives. This book is filled with practical insights, actual events, and helpful tips that provide a clear understanding of what a Christian family looks like as they follow the blueprint God has given us in His Word.

The Jesus People were an unlikely combination of evangelical Christianity and the hippie counterculture. God's Forever Family is the first major examination of this phenomenon in over thirty years.

Calvary is the place where Jesus Christ paid the ultimate sacrifice for the redemption of mankind and for our sanctification and where he answered to every litigation of the accuser against us. Calvary invariably represents the cross as the cross represents our savior, Jesus Christ. Man on earth is on a journey of discovering, and this search can only have a positive end when it culminates at the knowledge and acceptance of our Lord Jesus as a personal savior, friend, redeemer, and God. Man has been given the right to choose between good and evil at all times but not the right to choose his destiny, his fate, or the circumstance of his life. Discovering Calvary has been a journey of twenty-one years. The hero of this novel, Samuel Okorie, is a young Nigerian youth born into an orthodox Christian family. The plot takes us through both his physical and spiritual journey from the tender age of about eight years old to maturity. Samuel eventually attains maturity not by succumbing to stronger (spiritual) forces or stronger arguments on life's ideas and Christian tenets but by making decisive personal choices. Discovering Calvary, therefore, is about this journey. In the plot of the story, the reader is exposed, along with the hero, to some aberrations that inadvertently exist in the lives of avowed Christians. The reader sees Samuel Okorie forced by circumstances beyond his control to discover life truths and standard Christian tenets. The reader's sympathy might be aroused because she/he identifies with the hero and feels his pain. The reader rejoices at Samuel's eventual victory at the discovery of Calvary.
